Room of One's Own

CELEBRATING THE BEST IN WOMEN'S LITERATURE

Room of One's Own is Canada's oldest literary journal written by and for women. Since 1975, Room of One's Own has been engaging readers with original, thought-provoking content that reflects the perspectives of women and tells their stories with intelligence, wit and humour.

Published quarterly, Room of One's Own offers a fresh and unique mix of fiction, poetry, creative non-fiction and art from both emerging and established writers and artists. A dedicated collective of women has driven the evolution of Room of One's Own for more than 30 years and continues to secure its place in Canada's female literary arts scene.

The clean, contemporary design and high production quality of Room of One's Own are incomparable: every issue features colourful, vibrant cover art reflecting new perspectives on the female form.

Room of One's Own offers a unique literary experience. Subscribe to Room of One's Own today and fill your mind.

FICTION

Entertaining stories from the hearts and minds of well-known writers such as Nancy Richler, Gayla Reid and Caroline Adderson, and emerging talents like Patricia Rose Young, Amanda Hale and Karen X. Tulchinsky.

POETRY

Original, touching works from seasoned poets like Kate Braid, Susan Musgrave, Aislinn Hunter, Andrea MacPherson and Madeline Sonik.

CREATIVE NON-FICTION

True stories about real women dealing with universal issues we can all relate to, such as motherhood, love, aging and self-image.

ART

Stunning visuals are featured on the cover and inside pages of Room of One's Own, enhancing the content and bringing the works to life.
